IT'S THE SEASON FOR NEC TO GIVE BACK TO OUR MEMBERS HOW CAPITAL CREDITS WORK

1 Track how much electricity you use throughout the year.

3 Allocate excess revenues as "Capital Credits" based on electricity used.

5 We will notify you if, how, and when you'll receive your Capital Credits.

2 At the end of the year: assess finances to see if there are excess revenues.

4 Board of Directors will pay out Capital Credits in the form of bill credits or cash.

CAPITAL CREDITS FAQ

► What are Capital Credits?

As a member-owner, you share in the profits of the co-op. At the close of each fiscal year, all revenue received in excess of expenses (i.e. margins) is allocated back to the membership in the form of Capital Credits. This allocation is based on the dollar amount of electricity purchased during the same year.

► Is my Capital Credit allocation taxable?

For individuals, Capital Credits are generally not taxable. We suggest you seek the advice of a tax professional for any other specifications.

► How does a member know the amount of his or her Capital Credits?

Each member has a unique Capital Credit account, which represents the member's ownership in the cooperative. When Capital Credits are allocated at the end of a year, all members who received electric service during that year will receive an allocation notice showing their current year's allocation and the outstanding balance of all year's service.
